

FIND TRUE BILL AGAINST SMITH.

Rome Man Charged with Assault with Intent to Murder.

Rome, Ga., Jan. 11.—Joan M. Smith, a prominent Roman, was indicted by the grand jury for assault with intent to murder Attorney Wright Willingham, a prominent and well known Roman, during the hearing of a bankruptcy proceeding recently before Referee W. S. Rowell.

During the hearing Smith became enraged at Willingham for some remarks made in the course of the argument and threw a heavy brass spittoon at Willingham, hitting him in the face and inflicting an exceedingly ugly wound.

Both men are very prominent, Willingham being a leading attorney at the Rome bar and a nephew of Hon. Seaborn Wright. Smith is a prominent merchant and lumberman.

Smith is now on trial in the United States court for contempt on account of the same matter.

Rawlings Is Separated from Sons.

Valdosta, Ga., Jan. 11.—Sheriff Passmore has found it necessary to move Milton and Jesse Rawlings from the part of the jail occupied by their father, J. G. Rawlings, and the boys now occupy a cell in the new part of the jail. It is said that J. G. Rawlings and his son Milton have not been getting along well together. It is said that the young man tore the iron from his bed and that he threatened to kill the old man if he was not taken out of the apartment.

Ejected Woman in State of Collapse.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Minor Morris, who last week was ejected from the executive offices and grounds of the White House, is today in a state of complete collapse. Dr. Morris, her husband, stated that her condition is critical. Her physicians have refused to permit any one to see her, or to have any discussion of the affair in her presence.

Printers Deny Violence.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—With hands raised dramatically above their heads, 283 striking printers, together, took oath that they knew of no violence in connection with the strike against the Chicago Typothetae, inaugurated on Aug. 28. The declaration was made before a notary public at the conclusion of a strikers' meeting.

Texas Negro Lynched.

Houston, Jan. 11.—Ben Harris, the negro charged with the assassination of Ozo Polk, at Berlin's mill Monday night, and who was taken from officers last night at LaSalle by a mob, was lynched early this morning at Moscow, Tex. There were about 70 men in the mob. The negro's hands were handcuffed behind him and his legs drawn back and tied to his hands before he was suspended in midair. The negro, when asked why he killed young Polk, said first it was an accident. Later he said he killed Polk "for fun." Harris' victim was a clerk in the commissary of the mill.

Will Protect Chinese Students

San Francisco, Jan. 11.—The Chinese consul has announced that he would request a police guard for the committee of students sent out from China to study the government and who are expected to arrive in this city in a few days. The consul said he knew protection would not be needed but that his countrymen were afraid because of the terrible stories which are circulated in China, and they would not feel safe without protection.

Kentucky Won't Be Dry Docked.

New York, Jan. 11.—The battleship Kentucky will not be placed in the dry dock at the navy yard as a result of her collision with the Alabama on Sunday. This was decided upon yesterday after a consultation of Captain J. N. Hemphill, acting commandant, Naval Constructor Nutting and other officials. The only injury to the ship was found to be above the water line. They consist of the bending and breaking of some plates on the starboard quarter.

Mrs. Tolla Granted Reprieve.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 11.—Mrs. Tolla was today granted a reprieve of 30 days by Governor Stokes. Mrs. Quack emboss, a New York lawyer, appeared before the board of pardons in Mrs. Tolla's behalf. Mrs. Jessie B. Porten, of Cincinnati, was here with petitions containing 181,000 names.

Troops Capture Forts.

Warsaw, Jan. 11.—The troops have captured the Iron forts at Astravice, government of Radom, which had been occupied by the revolutionists as their headquarters. Many of the revolutionists were killed or wounded.

A chauffeur recently fined at Kensington, England, said he had agreed with his employer that he (the chauffeur) should pay all fines. The practice, he added, was almost universal in motorist circles.

Sickening, Shivering Fits

Of ague and malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. E. S. Munday of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life." At all drug stores. Price 50c, guaranteed.

Mt. Vernon, Ga., Jan. 11.—The board of commissioners of roads and revenues of Montgomery county has awarded the contract for the erection of a commodious and up-to-date courthouse for this county to J. H. McKenzie & Sons, of Augusta, Ga. The contract price being $36,484, and work is to begin on the same not later than March 15, 1906.

He'd on Suspicion.

Joliet, Ill., Jan. 11.—A man believed here to be Constantine, the Chicago murderer, was arrested in Joliet early today. The prisoner claimed to be J. Morris, a traveling salesman for a Chicago firm. He came here yesterday. His inquiries of a livery man aroused suspicion.

Ship's Crew Ill.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 11.—The steamer Ellerie arrived yesterday 32 days from Ancon, with three of her crew down with fever. Captain Findley says there is a great deal of malaria fever in the canal zone.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well-known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure; then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." J. W. McCollum & Co.
